The Safest, ^{proven!} Most Effective Care On The Planet.

We're shincerely thrilled to meet you.

Who are we? The only brand to validate its hypoallergenicity: our published VH-Rating System (the first and only hypoallergenic rating system of its kind) is based on the North American Contact Dermatitis Group and European Surveillance System of Contact Allergies. Created by a renowned dermatologist-dermatopathologist, our randomized, double-blind, evidence-based clinical studies have been published in medical journals (over 75 of them) and presented (even awarded!) at dermatology conventions around the world. Each individual raw material, ingredient, brush — every little thing that goes into or on a product, and the product itself — is patch tested for skin safety. And that's just the beginning! What follows is a dizzying barrage of clinical tests, both in laboratories (in vitro) + human volunteers (in vivo), never on animals. We're a hypoallergenic, cosmeceutical doctor brand with oodles of products. Because for us, skin safety isn't a nice perk: at VMV, hypoallergenicity is a lifestyle. We care for men, women and children of all ages, from head to toe + cell to surface ... which is also why so many of our customers stay with us from diapers to demabrasion, across generations.

Welcome to our *skin*situation.
