As the wife of the founder of RRHOID RAGE and co-founder myself, I never expected hemorrhoids to become a family affair, but here we are! I know firsthand that hemorrhoids don't discriminate, they come for us all, especially during pregnancy and postpartum!

As a mom of three girls, I've been there, gritting my teeth through diaper changes while secretly wishing I had my own stash of soothing cream. That's why we created this; because no one should have to suffer in silence (or on the toilet). Whether you're a new mom, a seasoned warrior, or just someone looking for a little relief, know this: we're all in this together!
