our exclusive clean-air technology™ features:

- barley leaf extract, loaded with oxygen through the natural process of photosynthesis, helps provide available oxygen onto skin ensuring its optimal on-demand supply
- a blend of natural antioxidants and anti-pollutants with a patented technology that helps neutralize damaging free radicals plus, full-light technology with spf 30 protects and shields skin from harmful rays and light that accelerate visible signs of aging, including uva and uvb rays and visible and infrared light.

immediately:
91% of women felt fresh, smooth and petal-soft skin.*

over time:
skin feels protected, more resistant to the signs of daily aggressors and doesn't reveal your busy lifestyle.*

*8-week self-assessment study, 46 women ages 20-35, once-daily use oxygen is a vital source of energy for skin.

over time, oxygen levels in your skin tend to decrease and environmental and lifestyle factors like pollutants, stress and lack of sleep can give you a more dry and dull complexion that may make you look older, faster.

philosophy skin labs developed a lightweight, oil-free spf 30 moisturizer with exclusive clean-air technology™ to keep skin looking and feeling hydrated, energized, radiant and protected, so it can breathe freely to help resist aging and recover from the signs of daily life.
