MADE IN NEW ZEALAND

Marine Collagen, natural Lanolin and Vitamin E combine together to assist your skin's natural moisture retention and elasticity.

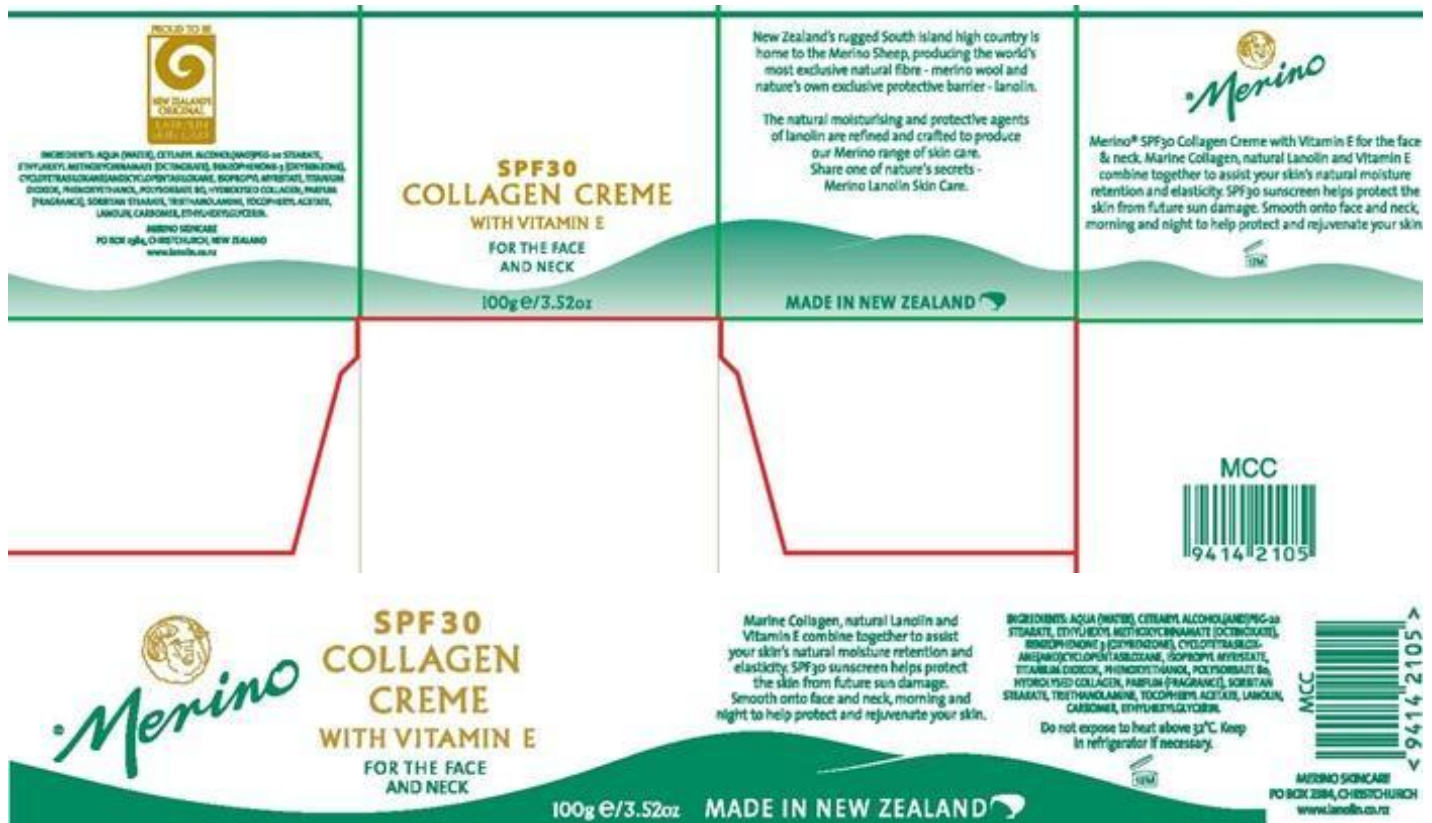

New Zealand's rugged South Island high country is home to the Merino Sheep, producing the world's most exclusive natural fibre - merino wool and nature's own exclusive protective barrier - lanolin.

The natural moisturising and protective agents of lanolin are refined and crafted to produce our Merino range of skin care. Share one nature's secrets - Merino Lanolin Skin Care.
