NATURX

Anti-Inflammatory

Pain Relief

GEL

Homeopathic

NATURAL

paraben-free

Net wt. 3.7 oz. (105 g)

What is NaturX?

NaturX is a non-prescription anti-inflammatory pain-relieving gel. It is readily absorbed and specially formulated using proven all-natural ingredients. NaturX is derived from ancient knowledge using modern chemistry. It is gentle enough to be applied three-times a day and yet delivers powerful temporary relief with no known side-effects.

The NaturX formulation was carefully tested and certified specifically for DrsOnlyLab LLC and has been shown to be effective in reducing inflammation and pain.

Why Choose NaturX?

NaturX brings temporary relief to the most common aches and pains, such as lower back pain, foot pain, bursitis, tendinitis, arthritis, rheumatism as well as muscle and joint pains caused by injury and excessive strain. It is also effective in temporarily relieving the symptoms of diabetic neuropathy.

Natural Products Research

Health care needs and diseases were noted in ancient literature. This knowledge enabled people to live longer and maintain optimum health. In order to serve the curative needs of patients, DrsOnlyLab develops ancient medicinal formulations. These formulations are perfected through world-class laboratories using the latest modern scientific technologies.

Medicinal Plants

In the quest for curative agents, natural extracts from plants are investigated by highly skilled researchers with expertise in isolation, purification and classification using advanced analytical techniques.

Standardization

Many factors, such as agricultural practices, dissimilar varieties of plants, climate, adulteration, the presence of metals and pesticides, all have an affect upon the quality of all-natural products. Standardization is the most essential part for any formulation in order to achieve quality consistency. In this regard, for each DrsOnlyLab product, a complete set of standardization practices are a requirement, from raw material to finished product.

Product Development

In order to maximize the effective benefits of DrsOnlyLab products, modern scientific technologies are used to ensure the most effective formulation, best quality and consistency. Each formulation is screened using stringent quality control parameters.
