

PREV-RX- folic acid, vitamin d3, vitamin b12, vitamin e, choline, calcium tablet
Poly Pharmaceuticals, Inc

Prev-Rx

Prev-Rx is indicated for dietary management of patients with unique nutritional needs requiring increased folate, phosphatidyl choline, Vitamin D3, Vitamin B12 or Vitamin E levels or used in improving the nutritional status of patients with folic acid, phosphatidyl choline, Vitamin D3, Vitamin B12 or Vitamin E deficiency. May also be recommended for patients who are advancing in age and may benefit from supplementation to aid in mental acuity. This statement has not been evaluated by the FDA. This product is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent disease.

Prev-Rx Tablets is an orally administered prescription strength folate product as a dietary supplement.
Prev-Rx should be administered under the supervision of a licensed medical practitioner.
Usual adult dose is 1 tablet daily or as prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

This product is contraindicated in patients with a known hypersensitivity

KEEP OUT OF THE REACH OF CHILDREN. In case of accidental overdose, call a doctor or a poison control center immediately. Safety and effectiveness in pediatric patients has not been established. Tell your doctor if you have: kidney problems, thyroid disease or heart disease.
This medication should only be used as directed by your doctor during pregnancy or while breastfeeding. Consult your doctor about the risk and benefits. Folic acid in doses above 0.1mg daily may obscure pernicious anemia in that hematologic remission can occur while neurological manifestations progress. There is evidence that the anticonvulsant action of phenytoin is antagonized by folic acid. Patients with epilepsy controlled by phenytoin may require increased dosing of phenytoin.

Allergic sensitization has been reported following oral administration of folic acid.
